Jim Luciani Named Vice President of Business Development for CXT Software

Phoenix, AZ – June 16, 2008 – CXT Software, a leading edge provider of same-day and expedited delivery software is pleased to announce that Jim Luciani has been hired as Vice-President of Business Development.

In his new position, Mr. Luciani will be charged with identifying and evaluating new markets for CXT Software and its products. As VP of Business Development, Jim will also be focusing a considerable amount of time toward cultivating new business relationships and managing existing CXT Software clients and partners.

Mr. Luciani comes to CXT Software with over 17 years of experience in the transportation industry, including a five year period in which he owned a regional same day delivery service in Southern California. Jim is a seasoned and accomplished business leader with a proven track record in executive management, operations management, sales and marketing.

“We are very excited to have Jim on board at CXT Software,” said Lyndon Edmonson, CFO, CXT Software. “Jim’s familiarity with our customers and his impressive track record in business development will serve us well in our goal of delivering innovative technology solutions for our customers. He will be instrumental in developing strategies to expand current markets and strengthen our long-term competitive posture.”

Jim currently lives in San Diego with his wife and three children.
