CXT Software Grows Development Team

Phoenix, AZ, June 3, 2009. CXT Software, a leader in providing automation technology to same-day delivery and distribution businesses, announced today that Kacey Gipson has joined its team as a Software Engineer.

“We are very excited to expand out development staff even further with the addition of a talented and ambitious individual in Kacey,” says Derek Figg Vice President of Operations. “He immediately fits perfectly in our environment and will become an asset for CXT Software and its customers.”

“I am pleased to be a part of the CXT Software team”, adds Kacey. “It is an opportunity for me to develop in a new and exciting environment.”

Kacey originally from New Mexico currently resides in Mesa, AZ. In his spare time he enjoys time with his daughter, science fiction and traveling.
